Attend the May Day Festival at Villa de Chantal

The east campus of the Villa de Chantal was a beautiful sight Wednesday afternoon, when parents and friends of the pupils and alumni of the school gathered at the annual May festival, an event of the graduation season every year. The warm weather and sunshine of the late afternoon added to the attractiveness of the affair.

Drills, dances and contests constituted the program for the day, which opened at 2 o'clock and lasted until dusk. The smaller children presented dainty, fairylike pictures in their pretty costumes in the soft, dainty shades, while the other students were in white. The affair was sponsored by the juniors, and the members of this year's graduation class acted as hostesses, receiving the guests and showing them about the lawn and the school.

The opening pageant, "America Supreme," given by the entire school, was a very patriotic demonstration and was a very fitting opening to the afternoon festivities. Then followed the pageant dance by Mrs. Charlotte Thompson, a doll dance by Arlene Jones and Kathleen Doran, while the seniors gave a beautiful garland dance. The Virginia reel was danced by a group of pupils, and another group gave a club swinging exhibition. The daisy dance, colonial dance, gretchen dance and couple dance followed, while Miss Margaret Murphy, Charlotte Thompson, Elizabeth Cook and Mary Murphy gave an interpretive dance, "Playfulness." A game, a fairy dance by Mary Alene Long, Ella May Ryan, Eloise O'Hara and Kathleen Doran, another by Florence Welch, Elizabeth Dunn, Elizabeth McCabe and Lillian Vidal, and two more by some of the juniors, was followed by an ever-changing, twinkling, Little Star, by Miss Arlene Jones and the primary esthetic class, Roman games, relay races, basketball games and a tournament closed the program. The senior girls were victorious in the tennis game, and Miss Beth Bradley, president of the junior class, presented the team members with the V. de C. emblems.

After the festival May day baskets, containing lunch, were passed to the guests, who remained until dusk enjoying the sociability and visiting the remarkable exhibits of the work done by the pupils in their studies and in the sewing and art departments. The notebook covers, which were all original, were the cause of much favorable comment. Miss Agnes Maucker was the winner of the beautiful cake given as a prize in a contest.
